From the Rector's Desk

As I write this, it's the day after the election. Regardless of where you are on the political spectrum, whether you're grieving or gloating at the results, I found a piece of advice from John Wesley dated 6 October 1774. He said, "I met those of our society who had votes in the ensuing election and advised them, 1) To vote, without fee or reward, for the person they judged most worthy; 2) To speak no evil of the person they voted against; and 3) To take care their spirits were not sharpened against those that voted on the other side."

But by the time you get this, the season of Advent will be beginning. It is a season of preparation for the coming of the Christ child. "Advent" is a Middle English word that comes from Medieval Latin: "adventus," meaning "arrival." We begin the new church year preparing for the arrival of the child, not celebrating his birth which is still a month away. Like expectant parents, we have to prepare for his coming.

The season of Advent is also a time for self-examination. Not only are we preparing for his first coming, we are anticipating his second coming. We therefore ask for forgiveness. We ask "for ourselves and on behalf of others, those things that are necessary for our life and our salvation" (BCP 79). That's why the color of the season is purple, which is also used during Lent, another period of self-examination and penitence. Blue is sometimes used during Advent, the tradition color of the Blessed Virgin Mary. I sometimes wear a blue stole on Advent Sundays where Mary plays a prominent role, even though it clashes with our purple altar set!

The season of Advent is thus a time of watching and waiting as well as a time of beginning. There is a time for decorations to begin, but that time is not now. There will be a time for lights on Christmas trees, for crèches and mistletoe and other symbols of the next season, but not yet.

So get ready for the fight! Some stores have had Christmas gear set out since long before All Saints' Day. I'm sure by now you've heard Christmas carols piped into the malls, and Christmas catalogues are beginning to fill your mailbox. But wait ... wait ... wait. It will be hard, and the Church probably lost that fight a long time ago, but resisting the lemming-like rush to Christmas pays great dividends.

On a personal note: I am very grateful for your prayers and support during my recent hospitalization and subsequent slow recovery. The many cards and calls, the food you've brought, and most of all, your prayers have sustained me. I'm getting better a little at a time, so I'm experiencing my own season of "waiting." I'm also experiencing some limitations that are new to me. Saying "no" is not something I often do! But I've withdrawn from the Leadership Program for Musicians for this year and hope to begin again in September 2013. Above all, though, I am especially grateful to Sherri Hardiman, our Parish Administrator, who has kept St. Peter's up and running during my enforced absence.

See you soon!

Faithfully,

Paul †

Wardens' Corner

My ninth grade English teacher required us to memorize a short Victorian poem, Invictus, written in 1875 by an English poet, William Earnest Henley. I thought "what a waste of time."

Our teacher said that we would remember this poem for the rest of our lives. Again, I thought, "yeah, right!"

Well, unlike most poems we had studied, I found it quite interesting and easy to memorize. The verses stirred me and I knew they had deeper meaning than I could comprehend at the time. However, I went on with my life, not giving this poem another thought.

When I was in college, a classmate started reciting the poem and, surprisingly, I chimed in with him, realizing that I actually recalled the verses and now understood their meaning. Since then, I have met others who also know this poem. I would recall the poem in periods of challenge in my life because it was uplifting, inspiring, and would ground me in the reality that I was in direct control of my own future and spiritual self.

A recent movie entitled Invictus, dramatizes how this poem gave Nelson Mandela the strength and courage to sustain himself while he was imprisoned for over 20 years in South Africa.

I offer these verses to you in the hope that they be as inspirational to you as they have been to me:

*Out of the night that covers me,
Black as the pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul.*

*In the fell clutch of circumstance
I have not winced nor cried aloud.
Under the bludgeonings of chance
My head is bloody, but unbowed.*

*Beyond this place of wrath and tears
Looms but the Horror of the shade,
And yet the menace of the years
Finds and shall find me unafraid.*

*It matters not how strait the gate,
How charged with punishments the scroll.
I am the master of my fate:
I am the captain of my soul.*

Yours in Christ,

*Rod Molina

Church School News

The fall has been filled with neat activities for our Church School students! Kim McLean provided an instructional lesson to the children in grades 1 through 5 on the different components of communion. The children went on a field trip to the church and watched from the communion rail as Kim showed them how the table is set for communion and identified the names of each item. We also discussed why we take communion and what it means to us as believers. We played several games and everyone, including students and teachers, learned a great deal. Thanks, Kim!

As a result of the children's fundraising from last year's Palm Sunday Art/Bake Sale, we raised enough money to mail the school supplies to the Marshall Islands and had enough money left to fill and mail 20 shoeboxes to Operation Christmas Child. On Sunday, November 4, the children shopped at church to fill these shoe boxes!

Christmas Craft Day is fast approaching. This year's event will be held Sunday, December 2 following the 11 am service. This is a fun event for the entire family. Making these gingerbread houses marks the beginning of the Christmas season. The cost of the event is $15 per family, which covers pizza, soft drinks, and the decorations for the gingerbread house. You will need to bring a paper milk carton as the base for your house. Please sign up in the Parish House foyer to participate.

The annual Christmas Pageant will be held Sunday, December 23 at 10 am in Richardson Hall. We would like all of the children to participate. We will practice at 10 am on the following dates: December 2, 9, and 16. Help us make this the best Christmas Pageant ever!

Children's Choir

The children will sing at the Christmas Pageant on December 23. We will practice at 10 am on December 2, 9, and 16 during pageant practice. Please listen to the CD to help learn the words!

In January, choir practice dates will be January 13 and 27.

Worship

Christmas Poinsettias & Hanging of the Greens

It's time to plan for St. Peter's Christmas decorations—vibrant poinsettias and greenery—which add so much beauty to our worship and fellowship venues during the Christmas season. As you may recall, poinsettias are available for purchase in memory of, in honor of, or in thanksgiving for a loved one. Sheets to sign up for them are in the church and in the Parish House foyer. The sheets will only be available through December 10, so plan to sign up early!

A $9 donation is requested for each poinsettia purchased. Checks should be made payable to St. Peter's Parish Church with Christmas Flowers on the memo line.

Helpers of all sizes and ages are needed to help with Hanging of the Greens on Saturday morning, December 22. Come at 9 am and join the fellowship and fun while preparing the church for Christmas worship.

STILL WANTED ~ Rota Volunteers

Help! We need more Rota volunteers! There are many opportunities for everyone to serve, from the adult roles of Lectors, Intercessors, Chalice-bearers, Oblationers, and Sidesmen, to mostly youth roles of Peter's Heralds and Acolytes.

If you have interest in assisting with services, but not sure of which role(s), just give Fr. Paul or me a call at the church office (932-4846). We will review your interests and see that your name is passed along to the appropriate person for you to become an active participant in worship services.

We are delighted to include new people and don't want to overlook anyone willing to serve. If you've been thinking about this, but haven't acted on it, it's not too late! We hope to hear from you soon.

~ Sherri Hardiman, Parish Administrator

Kneelers for St. Peter's

Many of the kneelers in the church are well past their service life. Although no one knows for certain how old they are, it seems fairly likely that they were put in the church during the 1960s. Now they've become dry-rotted in both foam and fabric, misshapen, and ready for replacement. Four or five bids have been secured, and a team of two Vestry people and two members of the Restoration Board will soon decide on which vendor, what fabric, and so on. The approximate cost is $60-$75 each, and since we need more than a hundred, you can see that it's a pretty major project!

We encourage you to give a kneeler, or enough to outfit an entire pew, in memory of a loved one, or in honor of one of the saints of our church. In the meantime, please help us clear out the ripped, torn, and unsightly kneelers either by bringing them back to the Parish House and putting them on the bench outside my office, or by pointing them out to a Sidesman who will bring them to the Parish House for you. Stay tuned for more information!

~ Fr. Paul

Inclement Weather Policy

In the event of bad weather which may affect a service, the Vestry will make contact with their calling tree. Also, the church voice mail will be updated accordingly. If you're in doubt of what to do, contact your Vestry person or call the church.

If there is a function or event – not a service – at the church and there is inclement weather, please make note that if the New Kent County Schools are closed on that day, then the function/event at the church will be cancelled. Every effort will be made to change the voice mail system during the week to update for functions as well. Please keep this information handy during times of inclement weather.

Outreach

Christmas Offering

*“To provide a safe and healthy environment and the opportunity for individuals to reach personal outcomes and goals.”
— Cornerstone Mission Statement*

The 2012 St. Peter’s Parish Christmas offering has been designated for Cornerstone Support Services located in New Kent County. Cornerstone Support Services provides residential services to individuals with intellectual disabilities. Individuals receive these services and supports while living in a group home operated by Cornerstone. At Cornerstone, emphasis is always placed on a person-centered approach that empowers and supports each individual to develop his or her own life-style. This means that Cornerstone plans its services based on what the person and their circle of support feel is important. By doing this, Cornerstone ensures that services are self-directed and tailored specifically to each individual.

While many services are covered by Medicaid, Cornerstone residents have needs that are unfunded. Individual needs include eyeglasses, clothing, and social and recreational activities. Your contribution will support these needs as well as other individual needs. All contributions will be used strictly to meet the needs of residents.

For more information about Cornerstone, please visit their website at www.cornerstonesupportservices.com. Please be generous this season!

Operation Christmas Child

Thank you for sharing the good news of our Savior with hurting children of the world by your contributions of Christmas shoeboxes to Operation Christmas Child.

We collected 53 shoeboxes, surpassing our goal of 50 boxes! Thanks to everyone for your support of this annual outreach program.

Matthew’s Haven

Many thanks to all the volunteers who stepped up to assist Matthew’s Haven while I was out with back surgery. Matthew’s Haven closed briefly until we could reorganize a volunteer group to help. A huge thank you goes to Martha Danielson for taking the burden of many weeks of calls and to Mark Whidden who put out a plea for more help. We would not have been able to operate without the assistance of these volunteers and it truly meant a lot.

Our Give a Child a Christmas event kicked off November 18, Harvest Feast Sunday. We posted the names of approximately 60 children who need assistance for Christmas. Many have been adopted by our own parish family and other children will be assisted through the New Kent Community and businesses located in Richmond and Williamsburg. Thanks to the New Kent Junior Women’s Club, we will set up a table at their Breakfast with Santa to get the remainder of the children adopted for Christmas. We greatly appreciate all of the support for these children.

On a personal note -

Thank you to everyone for the phone calls, cards, well-wishes and prayers, as well as the food provided to my family during my recent setback with a third back surgery. Your kindness is greatly appreciated!

Parish Life

Pilgrimage to the Holy Land

If visiting Israel is on your life "bucket list," here's your chance to travel with fellow Episcopalians to walk in the footsteps of Jesus. The Rev. David Teschner, Rector of Christ and Grace Episcopal Church in Petersburg, Virginia, is hosting a small group of pilgrims for a 10-day trip to Bethlehem, Nazareth, Cana, Capernaum, Jericho, and much more. The group will leave from Richmond for Israel on Wednesday, March 6, 2013 and will return on Friday, March 15. The price is $3,398, which is all-inclusive except for the cost of lunches and incidentals.

This will be David's third trip to the Holy Land; he can't wait to go back to the heartland of our faith. Israel's history, people, geography, and religious traditions will captivate, inspire, and transform you.

If you are interested or would like to receive more information, please contact Lisa Guthrie by phone at 932-9422 or e-mail at LisMG1@aol.com.
