The Rector's Cross

*It is my great pleasure to award you the Rector's Cross for the year 2009, Fr. Paul began. And with these words, The Rector's Cross was initiated at St. Peter's Parish Church. Paul continued, *This is the first year this award has been presented, and you have set a high standard for subsequent recipients. The Rector's Cross is given in recognition of outstanding volunteer service by a parishioner of St. Peter's Parish Church. Here are a few of the many things we would like to recognize you for doing.

Heartfelt thanks and congratulations to Carol Nelms and Major Mansfield for their unending work for St. Peter's and for being selected as the first recipients of The Rector's Cross. Thank you, too, to Fr. Paul for finding a way to recognize parishioners who are truly like gravity to our church "we rarely make note of it, but we depend on it each day." See page 5 for a summary of these dedicated parishioners' contributions. Each of them is a blessing to all of who worship in this place!

From the Rector's Desk

The following is from St. Paul's first letter to the Christian church in Corinth. It is one of the lectionary texts assigned for the Third Sunday after the Epiphany.

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body — Jews or Greeks, slaves or free — and we were all made to drink of one Spirit. Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many. If the foot would say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. And if the ear would say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. If all were a single member, where would the body be? As it is, there are many members, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." ... But God has so arranged the body ... that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it.

This passage came up this year on the Sunday following our Annual Parish Meeting. I know many people skip this meeting, or skip this Sunday entirely. "That's not why we come to church," they

Wardens' Corner

First, let me thank Brett Marshall for his two years of service as Junior Warden. He, as well as Bob Kay and Bobby Nelms, have served as instructive examples and guides. As Brett mentioned during the Annual Meeting, the Junior Warden is also known as "the Peoples Warden"; I think he served you, the people, well.

I hope the season of Epiphany, the manifestation of Christ in our world, is finding a manifestation of Christ in your life and that of your loved ones.

~ David Swynford, Senior Warden

Crisis in Haiti

We are all aware by now of the incredible damage caused by the earthquake that struck Haiti January 12. The poorest country on earth, it is ill-equipped to handle a crisis of this magnitude. Episcopal Relief & Development says "at least three million people are estimated to have been affected, innumerable homes have been destroyed and major structures have been damaged including the Diocese of Haiti's headquarters."

Should you want to donate, do not click on any link in any e-mail sent to you. The Salvation Army, the Red Cross, and others will never solicit you directly. Instead, go to their official site: The Salvation Army website is http://www.salvationarmyusa.org/usn/www\_usn\_2.nsf and click on "Donate now to the Haiti Relief Fund," Reach the Red Cross at <http://www.redcross.org>.

Perhaps the best way is to donate via St. Peter's Parish Church. Mark the memo line of your check "Haiti Disaster" or something similar, and we will forward it through the Diocese to the Episcopal Relief & Development Fund (formerly The Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief).

Episcopal Relief & Development's website, www.er-d.org, is updated with information on the crisis in Haiti. There, we learned that the Diocese of Haiti has set up a camp the size of a football field where Haitians are seeking refuge. Please keep the people of Haiti in your prayers.

Lenten Resources

We have purchased 2010 LENTEN MEDITATIONS, devotional booklets, and "Join the Journey," Lenten calendar posters, for parishioners to use this Lenten season.

These items will be available Sunday, February 14 and again at the 7 pm service on Ash Wednesday, February 17.

We ask that each family takes only one calendar and one booklet. Thank you!

Parish Life

Family Game Night at St. Peter's

Come join us for a fun-filled Family Game Night at St. Peter's on Friday, February 5! This will be a great way to laugh away the winter blues and get to know one another better. Adults, young adults, college-age, as well as youth in middle and high school are welcome.

Plan to be in Richardson Hall from 7 until 9:30 pm (or so) for refreshments, games and a lot fun! We will play a variety of board and card games!

Family Game Night is sponsored by the Fellowship Committee. This is not a fundraiser of any kind – we just want to have FUN! Contact Joyce Molina at 932.3990 or May O'Leary at 932.3354 with any questions.

We hope everyone will come out for this new event of fellowship and games!

~ May O'Leary, Fellowship Committee

Outreach

Souper Bowl Sunday

Souper Bowl of Caring is a national movement started by youth who believed they could use the energy around our nation's biggest sporting event to inspire Americans to make a difference. The best part of Souper Bowl is that both the food and money stay in our community.

Sunday, February 7, 140 million Americans will tune into the Super Bowl football game. There will be food and fun for many people watching the game. At the same time, there will be people struggling to feed themselves and their families for the day. That morning, EYC youth will be at the church door before and after each service to collect for Souper Bowl! Please consider donating money or bringing a non-perishable food item to donate. You may do both! The collection will be donated to the New Kent Food Bank.

To help out at this time of the year when food stores are typically low, we will be collecting non-perishable items throughout the month of February. Please donate to someone who might otherwise go without.

~ Adriane Marshall, EYC Advisor

Shrove Tuesday Pancakes!

The Youth Mission Team is gearing up for our trip this summer! For 2010, we will be going to Daytona Beach, Florida!

To help us earn money towards the trip, the youth will again this year sponsor the Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper on "Fat Tuesday," February 16.

The doors open at 5:30 pm. The cost is $5 a person and $15 per family. Please use the sign up sheet in the Parish House foyer to give us a head count.

~ Adriane Marshall, Youth Mission Team Leader

Children's Choir News

We definitely have an enthusiastic Children's Choir! They have been delightful to work with. Below is a schedule of practices for the remainder of this Church School year. Practices will continue to be Sundays at 10:30 am.

February 14 and 28

March 7 and 21

April 11 and 25

May 9 and 23

June 6

Tentative Performances:

February 14, April 4, May 9, and Youth Sunday (date to be announced).

Christian Education News

What a busy December we had! The annual Christmas Craft Day kicked off the Advent season for our children. Each year the gingerbread houses are more and more creative. This year we even had a manger scene!

Sundays in December were consumed with the Church School Christmas Pageant practice and Children's Choir rehearsals. Thanks to all of the parents for getting the children to practice and your patience with the rescheduled date of the pageant. Although there were several weeks in between the rehearsals and the actual performance, the children were great! Thanks to all of the teachers for your help; especially Karen Moore for her guidance!

~ Carol Nelms, Church School Superintendent

Adult Christian Education

We look forward to continuing with the regular discussions on the weekly lectionary. Please join our lively discussions -- we think it will increase your enjoyment and understanding of each week's service.

Beginning February 7, we'll be taking a three week break for a DVD/discussion series focusing on prayer. Please come!

Louise Miller Clopton and William Boyd Clopton Memorial Scholarship

William B. Clopton established a scholarship fund at St. Peter's Parish Church as a memorial to his wife, Louise Miller Clopton, and his son, William Boyd Clopton. Grants from the fund are made to graduating seniors from New Kent High School or graduating seniors who are active members of St. Peter's.

Each year, up to $4000 in scholarships are administered by St. Peter's and awarded to students who demonstrate strong moral character, religious involvement, community service, motivation, academic success, and financial need. The scholarship award is for one year only.

Again this year, we are announcing this scholarship opportunity to our community. The application deadline is April 1, 2010. Applications are available from New Kent High School and St. Peter's.

~ Clopton Scholarship Committee

The date for our 9th Annual St. Peter's Golf Tournament is set for Friday, May 14, 2010, at Brookwoods Golf Club. We will have a captain's choice format (four person teams: $75 per person/$300 per team) with a shotgun start of 1 pm. Look for more details in next month's issue of The Keys!

Carol K. Nelms

- Superintendent of the Church School
- Faithful member of the Choir
- Helped to initiate a Children's Choir, recruited members, and now one of the leaders
- Along with her husband Bobby, led several ALPHA groups
- Member of the Altar Guild
- Organizer and coordinator of the annual Christmas Craft Day
- Organizer and coordinator of the annual Craft and Bake Sale
- Worked on the annual golf tournament – not just this year, but for many years
- Has served both on Vestry and on the most recent Search Committee
- Assisted with the annual Youth Sunday
- Has served on the Audit Committee
- Reliable contributor to the KEYS -- your articles are always on time and well-written
- Helped select and lead a Lenten project each year
- Member of the Garden Guild
- Meals on Wheels volunteer
- And although it's not strictly St. Peter's-related, serves as a board member of the New Kent Educational Foundation

Major W. Mansfield

- "Clerk of the Works" for the Cal Curling wall, completing the Memorial Garden – you worked with landscapers, architects, brick masons, and other trades, and oversaw the installation of an irrigation system
- Oversaw the window restoration project in the Church, working with Willet Hauser both long-distance and on-site for the repair of the leading and replacement of glass panes
- Worked with others on the restoration of the window frames, scheduled to be completed in the spring of 2010
- Oversaw the exterior painting of the church, and managed to talk them into cleaning the gutters of the Parish House at no additional charge
- Oversaw the restoration of the tower "pots," including plaster repair and painting
- Worked tirelessly on fixing the roof of the Parish House
- Installed low-voltage lighting at the steps of the patio outside the Parish House
- Purchased, and then made serviceable, fire baskets, first used at the Christmas Eve service 2009
- Supervised repair of the hot water lines – which provide heat – to the Church (several times)
- Worked on the boiler again and again
- Along with his wife Jean, worked on several Matthew's Haven projects
- Served faithfully on the Vestry
- Supervised the cleaning of the education wing of the Parish House, including moving all the furniture out and back in
- Replaced the floor in the kitchen
- Replaced the floor in the hallway outside the church offices

say. Frankly, that's not why I come to church, either. But once a year, it's good to hear what we are doing. If I were a typical empty-nester, I'd never know what a dynamic Vacation Bible School program we had last year (thanks, Carrie and Jennifer!). If all I ever saw was "Martha's Gift Shoppe," I'd never know what great work Resource & Development does (thanks, Lindy, Peg et. al.). If I just went to coffee hour, I'd not know what else Fellowship does (thanks, Barb!). So it's good to check in on an annual basis and find out all the good things that this parish is doing.

This year someone gave us a great metaphor for how the church – more specifically, this congregation – works. He talked about going into Preservation Hall in New Orleans just before a jazz concert. It was nothing but noise: the bass player practicing his riffs, the drummer hitting a few rolls, the trumpeter and the saxophonist both doodling around in their own little world, oblivious to anyone else. No one would guess what was about to happen. One, two, three, four ... and off they go, all in tune, playing the most marvelous music imaginable.

That's a great image for how we work. We're not all bass players, and we're not all drummers. In one way, we're more like a symphony orchestra than a jazz group, since we have a number of violins, about six cellos, and a large woodwind section. But if all we had were violas, even though it is the most sublime of strings, or if all we had were French horns, it would be an odd-sounding orchestra, indeed. In fact, it could not even be considered an orchestra, really. Every single part of the orchestra is needed: even the lowly triangle, part of the percussion section.

Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? But strive for the greater gifts.

The way St. Paul leads us into the next chapter is remarkable. After telling us that we are "the body of Christ," exhorting us to "strive for the greater gifts," he follows it this way: But strive for the greater gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way. What more excellent way might that be? It is, simply, love. If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. In other words, without love, our orchestra degenerates into nothing more than dissonance and noise. And because we love each other, if one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it. That's what allows us to make music together to the glory of God.

I can be depressed because I'll never get the hang of a double reed like a bassoon or an oboe, or I can play what I know how to play to the best of my ability. And if we all do that – if we all play the best we can, playing off the same sheet of music, loving one another, rejoicing with one another – it might be a cliché, but yes, we can make beautiful music together.

I am your brother in Christ,

Paul †

Altar Guild

As you know, it was quite a snowy Sunday we decorated, with not too many people braving the conditions to come to the service. As it happened, most folks who did come, stayed to help us decorate. So, a big Thank You to Barb McKinney, Sally Smith, Lee & Lindy Brammer, Jon Ackley, Cynthia & Paul Rowles, Nancy & Kirk Goodman, Edna Christian, Doug & Shirley Meyer, David Swynford, and Brett Marshall. The large boxwood wreath in the East Window was provided by Jayne Thomas Pinelli, who has done so for the past several years. St. Peter's looked quite lovely and couldn't have without so many helping hands.

A special thank you to Catherine Stanley who designed our beautiful Christmas decorations, ordered all of the fruit, and played a significant part in decorating the church.

On another note, thank you to Hawthorne Davis for all of the wonderful wood working projects he has provided for the Altar Guild this past year. The pretty candle oil-filling rack, the rolling frontal stands, and lastly, the storage chest in the tower.

Thanks also to Major Mansfield for the poinsettia display frame in Richardson Hall, and for all of his work on the wonderful wrought iron fire baskets used during Christmas Eve services.

We are blessed to have so many talented people at St. Peter's who are willing to donate their time and talent.

~ Kim McLean, Altar Guild Chair

Matthew's Haven

I am sure everyone is familiar with this prayer. It is a prayer that is commonly said, and one that I personally say often, to get me through the day or the week.

Prayer of Saint Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Amen.

This year's Give a Child a Christmas was extremely successful! There were 60 children, or 22 families. Many of you at St. Peter's, as well as in the community, had a hand in brightening the life of a child on Christmas Day. We received help from not only our parish family, but sponsors from Henrico, Hanover, Williamsburg, a four-wheel drive club located in Richmond, and St. Paul's Episcopal at Hanover Courthouse.

where there is doubt (a teenager), faith; where there is despair (a parent), hope; where there is darkness (a social worker), light; and where there is sadness (a child), joy.

We had so many families this year. I thought we would be overwhelmed getting all of the children sponsored. We planned to assist 40 children, yet found sponsors for 20 more! "Pray for Miracles!" is what one of our case workers said. She made signs and posted them all over her office. And a miracle is what we received! Each year we have been able to do just a bit more and I am ever so thankful to have so many wonderful people from St. Peter's who contribute to Give a Child a Christmas, as well as throughout the year to make these miracles happen.

For it is in giving that we receive; in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. –

Amen.
