From the Rector's Desk

"Tweet if you love Jesus!"

That was the headline of the cover story on the latest – and, unfortunately, last – issue of Episcopal Church Foundation's VESTRY PAPERS. After the November/December 2010 issue, the print version will be replaced by an online presence: ECF Vital Practices, available at www.ecfvp.org. Much of what follows is drawn from information presented in that final printed issue.

"We live in a rapidly changing world in which means of communication are evolving exponentially. We have the most important message in the world and some of us are sending it by pony express," the article says. "Facebook now has 350 million members. If it were a country, it would be the third largest in the world." Furthermore, "during the Reformation of the sixteenth century the church was quick to seize upon the opportunities presented by the newly invented printing press, but since then it has lagged behind the curve of technology ... slow to realize the potential of 20th century mass media." The article goes on to list four practical suggestions for "taking that quantum leap into new communication technologies."

1. If you do not already have a basic website for your church, create one. We do. In fact, we have a very good website: www.stpetersnewkent.org. Rod Molina is the webmaster. That should be a good portal for almost any information you're looking for, be it history or service times or THE KEYS.
2. Set up a Fan Page on Facebook. We have that, too. There's a link to it on our church website or you can go to www.facebook.com and search for it under St. Peter's Parish Church. There's also a Facebook page for our Youth Group. Simply go to Facebook and search for St. Peter's EYC.
3. Make sure your clergy person has a Facebook page and comments on it every day or so. He does. Go to Facebook and search for Paul Rowles. Specify "New Kent" and look for the US Army tank picture. Make sure you get the right one! There are about twenty of us, some of whom look much more interesting (and much more buff!) than me. I don't always post on my own wall every day, but I try to visit every day to keep up with what's happening. I don't always post something church-related; sometimes it's just something that's struck me as funny or relevant. I try to avoid political things, but sometimes our politicians make of themselves very inviting targets. In that case, I try for fairness and equal skewering!
4. Use Twitter to quickly get in touch with your staff, vestry, and leadership. That's the one thing we don't do. We don't have a Twitter account, and I don't follow anyone on Twitter. There was one parishioner whom I followed for a while, but his Tweets have gone silent.

Wardens' Corner

During the last meeting of the 2010 Vestry, the issue of stewardship was discussed during the development of the 2011 church budget. Dr. Steve Peterson led the most recent stewardship program for our church and reported back to the Vestry the various trends, opportunities, and financial challenges that St. Peter's will face for 2011 and what we may anticipate for the future. Using this information and the excellent budget model prepared by Treasurer Stuart Burnett, the Vestry successfully crafted and approved a 2011 budget for St. Peter's.

But what about that discussion about Stewardship?

In Dr. Peterson's review, he made the comment that he did not think the campaign had been as successful as he had hoped. Other Vestry members did not fully share this opinion and expressed their gratitude for his leadership in this important program. Examining the data for 2011, pledging units did not appear to grow. However, there was an increase in the amount pledged. For example, all pledging members of the Vestry increased their pledges for 2011.

But what about that discussion about Stewardship?

Let's take a look at what Paul was writing in Romans 12 which may be paraphrased as "Humble Service in the Body of Christ." Paul writes:

For by the grace given me I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the faith God has distributed to each of you. ⁴ For just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, ⁵ so in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others. We have different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us. If your gift is prophesying, then prophesy in accordance with your ⁶ faith; ⁷ if it is serving, then serve; if it is teaching, then teach; ⁸ if it is to encourage, then give encouragement; if it is giving, then give generously; if it is to lead, do it diligently; if it is to show mercy, do it cheerfully.

In these verses, Paul clearly understood the many forms of giving and encouraged the early Christians to act with their best gifts.

Special Thanks!!!

St. Peter's received a Christmas card saying:

"The season is special
...because of wonderful people like you."

Thank you...thank you so very much to all of you who gave so freely of your time and your heart on December 11 to help with our property at 6550 Hopewell Road. You were absolutely amazing. All of you were so wonderful with your kindness and generosity.

God bless to all of you and may your Christmas be every bit as beautiful as you are!

Christian Education in Review

What a wonderful and busy December we had!

The male soloists and female dancers made the 2010 Christmas Pageant one of the best in years. The costumes were spectacular and we actually were able to present the pageant on schedule -- a real blessing! The Children's Choir did a lovely job with "O Come Little Children" and Kendall Ezzell sang like an angel. Many thanks to Karen Moore, who organizes this program, the Church School teachers, our students, Hawthorne, and Sam for all of your efforts in making this a success.

Christmas Craft Day was also great fun! We had 40 people to participate! The creativity gets better each year!

We invite all children to join us in Church School each Sunday morning at 10 am.

Worship

Altar Guild

I would like to extend my gratitude to everyone who helped decorate St. Peter's for Christmas and then, came again to take everything down. So, thank you, Peter and Torun Carlson; Kendall Hatley; Susan Cheyne; Paul and Cynthia Rowles; Edna Christian; Brett, Adriane, Waverly, and Maggie Marshall; Brian, Sandra, Jonathon, and Kelly Gellings; Corinne Dorsey, who provided the beautiful pine roping; Jayne Thomas Pinelli, for the East Window wreath; and Catherine Stanley, our designer. Taking down the decorations is just as arduous. Thanks goes to Jimmy and Edna Christian, Brian Gellings, Jon Ackley, Ray and May O'Leary, Ralph Ashton, Kendall Hatley, Ginny Morrow, and Altar Guild Group I.

~ Kim McLean, Altar Guild Chair

Children's Choir

The Children's Choir will practice next at 10:30 am on February 6 and 20. Remember, all are welcome to join us! Our next song will be "Do Lord."

Louise Miller Clopton and William Boyd Clopton Memorial Scholarship

William B. Clopton established a scholarship fund at St. Peter's Parish Church as a memorial to his wife, Louise Miller Clopton, and his son, William Boyd Clopton. Grants from the fund are made to graduating seniors from New Kent High School or graduating seniors who are active members of St. Peter's.

Each year, up to $4,000 in scholarships are administered by St. Peter's and awarded to students who demonstrate strong moral character, religious involvement, community service, motivation, academic success, and financial need. The scholarship award is for one year only.

Again this year, we are announcing this scholarship opportunity to our community. The application deadline is April 1, 2011. Applications are available from New Kent High School and St. Peter's.

IN GOD'S HANDS

Would you like to help your neighbors in New Kent and Charles City? Read on to learn more about a local mission program happening June 20 – June 24 this summer.

In God's Hands Service Camp, sponsored by Providence Forge Presbyterian Church, has extended an invitation to St. Peter's parishioners to participate in this weeklong camp. In the past, the camp focused on PFPC youth to provide the manpower. Recognizing the desire for adults to have an opportunity to help in a local outreach mission, this year, adults are invited and encouraged to volunteer for two – five days during the camp. Adults will be placed on sites working with other adults. Typical services include scraping and painting, rebuilding porches, gutter replacement, cleaning up, and hauling away debris. The Service Camp team will provide the sites, the materials and supplies for the site's work, lunch, and a site supervisor. For adults, this is a day camp, meaning you return home at night. The cost is $100 per participant to cover expenses. You are asked to provide your own tool belt with basic tools. The week begins Sunday, June 19, with a supper and a worship service at PFPC. This gives time to meet and get to know each other as well as to learn more about the upcoming week. Registration must be received by February 28. Fees are due upon registration. How can you sign up? IN GOD'S HANDS SERVICE CAMP flyers are available in St. Peter's Parish House foyer. For more information concerning the camp, you can email questions to www.pfpres@verizon.net or call 966-2079 Tuesday – Thursday, from 8 am until 1 pm.

Local Adult Mission Project

Kendall Hatley and I have been working for several months to organize a mission project for a family here in the county. On December 11, it came to fruition as 27 adults and six of our youth combined efforts. I'm sure we looked like a swarm of locust when we arrived at the Falat home to spruce up the yard and do some home maintenance!

We are so grateful for the wonderful response to our call to help a neighbor in need and we will continue to assist this family in the future. In addition, Jim Noctor has also coordinated the Ruritans' repair efforts for this project. I can personally tell you how much our extended hand was appreciated. Be sure to read the thank you note appearing on page 2.

Matthew's Haven

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

Philippians 4:13

Matthew's Haven would like to express our sincere gratitude for the contributions and sponsorships of children for our annual Give a Child a Christmas event. We either sponsored or found sponsorships for 60 children, 26 of whom were sponsored by our own parish family. The rest were sponsored by individuals in the New Kent community, as well as businesses in Richmond and Williamsburg. In addition to sponsorships, we also received a total of $600 in contributions for this event, two from the community and two from St. Peter's. George and Jayne Pinelli graciously donated 24 Food Lion gift cards and Matthew's Haven purchased additional ones, enabling us give one to each family.

I worry every year about how to accommodate the number of children we sponsor. Each year, I tell the agencies how many children we can accept from them and we end up taking a few more. This year, we offered to sponsor a total of 45 children from all agencies combined and ultimately had 60. Sometimes we take on more children because I find we are blessed with sponsors who want to help more children, and sometimes, based on the children's situations, I just can't say no. Somehow, some way, God sees us through.

The wish lists Matthew's Haven provides are to

Sweetheart Breakfast

In response to popular demand, the Fellowship Committee is pleased to announce they will sponsor a Sweetheart Breakfast on Sunday, February 13 from 9:45 – 10:45 am. This will be in lieu of the previously scheduled Coffee Hour.

Everyone is invited to breakfast! Please sign up on the sheet provided in the Parish House foyer, so that we may prepare enough food for everyone to enjoy. Bring a sweetheart, or just be a sweetheart!

Either way, come out and have some great fun and fellowship, just in time for St. Valentine's Day.

St. Peter's EYC

Souper Bowl Sunday

Sunday, February 6, 140 million Americans will partake in food and fun while they are tuned into our nation's biggest sporting event, the Super Bowl football game. At the same time, there will be people in our nation struggling to feed themselves and their families for the day. The Souper Bowl of Caring is a national movement started by youth to combat this hunger.

EYC youth will be at the church door, before and after each service, on February 6 to collect cash donations and non-perishables for Souper Bowl which will be donated directly to the New Kent Food Bank. To help at this time of the year when food supplies are typically low, non-perishable items will be collected throughout the month of February. Please consider donating to someone who might otherwise go without. Thank you!

In Appreciation

Heartfelt thanks to our St. Peter's family for the outpouring of support and love you have shown Christy, Jackie, their families and me these past weeks. The unexpectedness of Leo's passing left us all numb. You took us under your wings and cared for us.

Special appreciation to everyone who took part in the service on Saturday, November 20. Each one of you was special to Leo and your participation that day was evidence he was special to you. I will never forget your being there.

Thank you all for your love and care. It is helping make this time more bearable.

*In His peace and love,
Julie Vaisvil*

Flamingo Flocking

We are currently having a Flamingo Flocking. You can arrange to have a flock of pink flamingoes visit a friend, neighbor, or relative's yard. You can also purchase insurance to prevent your yard from being flocked! Information and prices are available in the Parish House foyer. Proceeds will help fund our 2011 Youth Mission Trip.

Youth Mission Trip

EYC is gearing up for another great Youth Mission Trip this summer! We are headed to Arecibo, Puerto Rico the last week in July with 15 youth and four adult chaperones. Arecibo is a city approximately 50 miles west of the capital, San Juan, and is home to 100,160 people. In Arecibo, 49.4 % of residents live below the poverty level and the unemployment rate is 16.3 %. While in Arecibo, the youth will be working with children's programs, elderly centers, soup kitchens/homeless shelters and thrift stores.

The youth will sponsor the Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper on "Fat Tuesday," March 8, at 6 pm, to help us finance the trip. Watch for more information in THE KEYS in March!

Corrections & Additions to St. Peter's Parish Church Directory

Corrections and additions to St. Peter's Parish Church Directory appear on pages 8 and 9. Please post them to your copy of the church directory. Several families have moved since the directory was published, there are some new entries, and some information was printed incorrectly. If there are other changes, please notify the church office.

We apologize for the errors and for the inconvenience they may have caused.

But what about that discussion about Stewardship?

As for the issue of stewardship within St. Peter's, I believe we are blessed with members that possess a multitude of talents and gifts. Surely, it is always more re-assuring to see those pledge cards roll in, but Paul's encouragement offers a foundation to our giving that may not always balance in relation to debits and credits. And as for that discussion of stewardship, a clear understanding of our need to maintain an active and on-going program throughout the year was agreed upon by the Vestry. Most likely, a late fall emphasis will continue to prevail at St. Peter's to encumber the monetary gifts offered by our parishioners, but it is never too late or an improper time to offer your gifts to Christ.

We don't have a balanced budget for 2011 in relation to expenses versus pledged income. This may drive the accountants crazy, but as believing members of Christ, we know that the gifts will come. We have a very challenging budget year ahead of us based on our needs. This is especially true for the various maintenance and operational initiatives associated with our facilities. Remember, pledges for 2011 are never too late because our stewardship to Christ is ever present.

Yours in Christ

Of course, if I want to get in touch with the St. Peter's staff, I just pick up the phone! All of the Vestry have e-mail, and we keep in touch regularly using that.

Speaking of e-mail ... Amy Simons writes this: "In the beginning when the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, a wind from the Internet swept over the land and the Internet said, 'Let us communicate using words that are recorded and delivered to one another electronically.' The Internet also said, 'I will call this Electronic Mail, and it is good.' Then the Internet said, 'Now let these messages be addressed to swarms of living creatures; include pictures, maps, and links.' The Internet called this HTML Email Marketing and it was good. The Internet blessed HTML Email, saying, 'Be fruitful and multiply.' And it did. 'I will create a church volunteer; and let him/her have dominion over all the Email of the earth.' But the volunteer needed a plan."

Well, the church volunteers are Joyce and Rod Molina, and we have a plan. We're now using Constant Contact as our e-mail manager. If you are already receiving our e-mail, you don't need to do anything. If you are not, please go to our website, scroll down to the bottom, and find the "Join our e-mail" link. You'll notice two changes with Constant Contact: e-mail will now come from a St. Peter's e-mail address and not Joyce's, and the look and feel of the e-mail will be more consistent, making it immediately recognizable as an official St. Peter's e-mail. One very important thing not to be missed is that we are moving towards making THE KEYS primarily available online and not via US Mail. If you're not on our e-mail list, you won't get THE KEYS. We will, of course, continue to send out copies to those without computer access, but the primary method of distribution will be an e-mailed link to THE KEYS. You'll hear more about this in next month's newsletter.

assist the sponsors by providing suggestions of what a child would like or need for Christmas. It provides clothing sizes, favorite colors, and hobbies. All of this information is to help us purchase items for the child. I have found personally, and also heard from others, the wish lists are invaluable when buying items for a child we don't know. It increases our excitement in shopping for that child, because we know we are getting them something special or something that they really need. We anticipate the child will be excited Christmas morning.

The wish lists are generally completed by the parents, case workers, or social workers. But occasionally the child themselves will fill them out. These are generally the ones that I can not say no to. These are children that I believe we must sponsor even if all of our sponsorships are gone. To see their handwriting, misspellings, and descriptions on their wish lists is very heartwarming and sometimes heart-wrenching.

For example, this year we had a brother and sister on our list. The brother is 15 and the sister is 12. The only thing these children asked for were toiletry items they could use to wash their bodies, clean their teeth, and smell good. How heart-wrenching is that? Of all the things they could have asked for, they asked for something so basic, something so simple that you and I take for granted and have every day on our shelves at home. Can you imagine not being able to get these items for your child or even for yourself? Can you imagine having to say, "we need bread so we won't be able to get shampoo to wash our hair this week"?

Well, these same children were given a supply of toiletry items that would last them many weeks to come; along with other items like clothing; books, because the girl likes to read; magazines, because the boy likes to hunt and fish. We also purchased socks, underwear, and pajamas for them.

So, this is the reason I can't say no! This is the reason I want and hope to be able to make the number we sponsor for Christmas and the number we help throughout the year continue to grow. Thank you all for everything you do to support Matthew's Haven, not just at Christmas, but throughout the year.

~ Catherine Pierce

Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul, and with all your mind.
Love your neighbor
as yourself.

Matthew 22: 37 and 39
