From the Rector's Desk

The rescue squad tones went off in the middle of the night, as they often do. It was in the early hours of Friday, August 23, 1991, and the call was in my end of Amelia County, near Mannboro. I signed on as responding to the scene, since it was relatively close. My partner, Melanie Jennings, then signed on as responding with an ambulance from the rescue squad building in Amelia Court House. We met on scene and began transporting our patient to MCV.

Partway up what is now called Military Highway—back then it was just US Route 153—the ambulance threw its alternator belts. One thing an ambulance can't run without is electricity, so a third member, Johnny Black, responded with another ambulance and met us at the intersection of US 153 and US 360. We left the broken ambulance, transferred the patient to the replacement ambulance, and resumed our journey to Richmond with Johnny driving and Melanie and me in the back with our patient.

Partway there I began experiencing all the classic signs of a heart attack. After telling her what was happening, I transferred care of our patient to Melanie, then put myself on the second stretcher and began administering oxygen. We transferred our patient to the MCV ER and then transported me to Chippenham Hospital, where it was discovered that I was indeed in the midst of what turned out to be a left anterior septal myocardial infarction. A balloon angioplasty a few days later, along with a week in the ICU, and I was home. I was 37 years old.

The blockage was in the left anterior descending cardiac artery, nicknamed the “widowmaker.” This is the same blockage that caused the recent, sudden, and unexpected death of my brother Mark, age 67. This has driven home to me more forcefully than you can possibly imagine how very deeply grateful I am for the nine thousand, one hundred and forty-nine days (as of this writing!) that have passed since then. When they tell your wife, in that little windowless waiting room off the ER, that “we make you no promises” regarding your husband's survival, and when you're looking at your own mortality in the face, it changes forever how you look at things.

No one guarantees us a tomorrow. Having a great time in the morning with his son and grandson, in what seemed to be very good health, by the time the sun went down he was in God's nearer presence. This day is a gift. It will never come again. I once heard a preacher begin the service, “This is the day the Lord has made. Let's not make a mess of it.” That's good advice! Live, laugh, love, and give thanks. Never forget to give thanks.

Faithfully,

Paul †

Wardens' Corner

It's that time again! SSSHHHH! We are going to talk about the "S" word. The "S" word you say? No, not the four-letter one, but the 11-letter word—Stewardship! I call it the "S" word because everyone gets all fidgety and uncomfortable when it's time to talk about that "S" word. Is this just an Episcopalian thing, or is this a multi-denominational discomfort? I don't know because I'm a cradle Episcopalian, and it is all I know.

I've never understood everyone being so uncomfortable. Maybe because it's about money and this always seems to be a sensitive subject. But Stewardship is more than money. Stewardship is about commitment too. God expects us to give up things which are important to us. Give up and commit to him. And these commitments do not need to be only financial. You can give your time and talents too. Any commitment you make to him is a form of Stewardship. People can be involved or people can be committed. Commitment is that extra step. There is a difference between being involved and being committed.

Again this year, we are following the TENS (The Episcopal Network for Stewardship) program for our Stewardship campaign. You will soon be receiving Stewardship letters from both Fr. Paul and Kent Bradshaw who is in chairing our annual giving campaign. During this year's campaign you will hear about ways that St. Peter's has touched lives, whether through our Pastoral Care Commission, Outreach Commission, or our Youth Mission Team.

I recently read on the TENS web site the following description of what Stewardship is not...

"Stewardship isn't...Fundraising, paying the light bills and maintaining a building, paying staff, meeting the budget, keeping the church alive, paying our fair share of the dues or passing on a legacy to our children."

I must say I was a little surprised! Because I believe it is all those things; after all, I'm the Senior Warden and I am supposed to lead the Vestry in taking care of the temporal responsibilities of the church. We as a Vestry certainly can't do most of our job without finances and our annual budget!

Now here is what TENS says Stewardship is...

"Stewardship is...Sharing in God's mission with a glad, generous and grateful heart, transforming lives in our community, prayerfully responding to God's call. Stewardship is a very deep and spiritual matter and should bless the giver more than the receiver."

And I absolutely agree with these statements. Because as you see, without "What Stewardship Isn't," we can't do "What Stewardship Is"! Without maintaining our building, we will have not have a place to worship, have Church School, participate in fellowship activities, and host outreach events.

Without paying our staff, we would have no one to answer our phones, watch our children during service, maintain the cleanliness of our Parish House and Church, play our beautiful hymns, and most importantly, lead us spiritually.

Without keeping our church alive, we cannot transform lives by spreading the word of Jesus Christ or assist those in need within our community. Furthermore, if we do not pass on a legacy to our children about Stewardship, the Episcopal Church will cease to be.

So while Stewardship is a very deep and spiritual matter, it is also a time to search your heart. Therefore, please prayerfully consider your tithe this year.

Adult Forum 2016-2017

We will meet in the Mullins Room at 10 am each Sunday until November 20. November 27 is the first Sunday in Advent; therefore, as we have done the last three years, we will take a break November 27 through Sunday, January 1, 2017, and start again on Sunday, January 8. We will meet each week until February 26, when we take our Lenten/Easter break. Finally, we will start up again on the first Sunday after Easter, which is April 23, and meet until the last two-service Sunday.

We won't meet on October 9 which is Bishop Johnston's visitation. If there are coffee hours at 10 am, we will start at 10:15. During the Lenten/Easter break, there may be a special Lenten class. More details to follow.

At the end of last year, the class decided to read and study, LIVING BUDDHA, LIVING CHRIST by Thich Nhat Hanh. This book is free on-line on Google books or on Amazon paperback for about $3. From "Booklist"- Zen master Thich Nhat Hanh, author of more than 70 books, is truly a universal spiritual teacher whose mission is to translate Buddhist precepts into language everyone can understand and to explain the practice of mindfulness in terms of contemporary life. These efforts are in keeping with the Buddhist belief in open-mindedness and the acceptance of change, as is Nhat Hanh's recognition of Jesus as "one of his spiritual ancestors." As he carefully compares key aspects of Christianity with Buddhism, Nhat Hanh distinguishes between the historical and the living Jesus and Buddha, celebrates common ground shared by their teachings, and explicates important differences. His ability to see beyond dogma is in sharp contrast to the rigidity of certain Christian perspectives, a contrast Nhat Hanh discusses with respect and urgency. If there is to be understanding, compassion, and peace in the world, spiritual teachers must learn to honor the "jewels," or "best values," at the heart of diverse traditions, and to keep their own alive by interpreting them in light of the here and now.

If we finish Mr. Hanh's book early, the class decided to explore THE SEVEN STOREY MOUNTAIN by Thomas Merton.

As I have stressed in the past, please join us whether you plan to read the book or not. YOU ARE NEVER BEHIND. There is no pressure to contribute in the class, so you are welcome to join us and just listen. Paul joins us on occasion and offers his valuable insight. So please don't just wait around in the Parish Hall for your child to finish Church School, grab a cup of tea or coffee and join us in Mullins.

Church School News

The second "American Bible Warrior Days" kicked off the start of the 2016-2017 Church School year. The students rotated through three different rotations: Bible Basketball, Living for Christ Limbo, and Sun Catcher Ornaments. Correct answers from last year's curriculum enabled the students to move forward in the events. A fun day was had by all!

We will continue the Attendance Incentive again this year. Regular attendance at Church School improves the odds of receiving a prize! The first drawing will take place on Sunday, November 6.

St. Peter's Church School classes are divided into the following groups: Preschool - Grade 1, Grades 2-4, Middle School—Grades 5-7, and High School—Grades 8-12.

There will be no Church School on Sunday, October 9 due to one service at 10 am for the Bishop's visit.

Mark your calendars now for Christmas Craft Day on Sunday, December 4 following the 11 am service. More details to follow!

A Music Note

“God is the composer; I am the song.”

It's a new choral year and we have a new music theme: “God is the composer; I am the song.” You are a song that is not finished; you are still being written. God loves all His songs, and He loves you. Pray to God about your song and give thanks for His everlasting love.

All of our choir members are very active whether in church, at work, at school, volunteering of their time, or participating in personal hobbies. Here are a few upcoming events that involve members of the choir. Your support will be appreciated! Justin Mitchell continues his work in the theater and will perform in a production of Almost Maine at New Kent High School. This romantic comedy explores love and loss in a remote, mythical almost-town called Almost, Maine. Performances will be December 1, 2, and 3. Rod Molina along with Larry Gallaher and Stan Wells make up the “Southern Branch” band. Their next gig is at New Kent Winery on October 23 from 1 to 5 pm.

You are invited to the Henrico Concert Band's Holiday Concert to be held at The Henrico Theater in Highland Springs on December 12 at 7:30 pm. The concert is free; however, please call the theater to make an open-seating reservation. Reservations will be taken starting a month before the event; call 328-4491. While there, look for Joyce Molina on oboe and Chrissy Wagner on trombone.

On November 20, Chrissy and Joyce will participate in the 10th annual Come and Play event with the Richmond Symphony. The performance will be in VCU's Siegel Center at 6 pm and it's free. Musicians of all ages will play alongside members of the Richmond Symphony and present a concert to the public. It is estimated that over 600 musicians will perform at this special event.

Steve von Hitritz will sing with the choir for the Richmond Nativity Pageant. This annual event will be at the Carillon at Byrd Park on December 22 at 7 pm. The rain date is December 23.

As always, your support will be most appreciated!

Outreach

Matthew's Haven, Inc

Matthew's Haven, Inc.

Our Back2School Fair was held on Saturday, August 13 at the New Kent Human Services building. Along with school supplies, hearing and vision screenings, immunizations were also offered. This year we helped over 330 local children in need with school supplies and undergarments! We couldn't have done this without our volunteers. A HUGE thank you to all of the wonderful volunteers who helped with our Back2School Fair!!

We welcome St. Peter's Ron Eagle as our new Matthew's Haven Treasurer! He is replacing Sue Sitterson, who remains a valued volunteer. We have many opportunities for volunteering—involving as many or few hours as you'd like. Everything from organizing, fund-raising, purchasing items, taking calls on a rotation (about one week every six+ weeks), to helping with our annual projects. Just let me know!

We'll be gearing up soon for our annual Give a Child a Christmas (GACAC). Children's names will be posted around Thanksgiving. Maybe your family or fellow workers or clubs you belong to would like to give a child a Christmas this year? You'll be given all the information that you need (their clothing sizes, their favorite colors, their "wish list," activities and sports that they like, etc.) to sponsor a child. Please consider participating in this wonderful outreach program. You'll be glad you did!

Annual Parish Picnic Appreciation

Many thanks to Anna and Boogie Davis and their families for hosting our annual St. Peter's Parish Picnic, held August 7 at their beautiful Pamunkey River home.

A great crowd attended the service of Holy Eucharist which was followed by a lunch and afternoon of fun and fellowship. Our youth spoke about their Mission Trip to Thornwell in Clinton, South Carolina and our Vacation Bible School Director, Cricket Smolnik, gave a report on this year's VBS, Cave Quest.

Thank you to the Fellowship Committee for their efforts in this year's picnic and many thanks to everyone who brought a dish to share and assisted with the clean-up.

We look forward to next year's picnic!

Celebrating Our History...Planning Our Future

On May 22, many of you attended our “Bridging St. Peter’s Past with its Future” event at the New Kent Winery. Thank you for attending and if you would like more information about legacy gifts to St. Peter’s, please visit our website, stpetersnewkent.org, click on Giving, scroll down and click on Planned Giving. You will see the video presented at our event and learn about all of the many ways to make a legacy gift.

St. Peter’s Foundation recently received a gift from the estate of Kathleen Cabell, who knew Bob Kay at St. Peter’s. Kathleen designated the Foundation in her will because she was aware of all of the work that Bob did in creating our Planned Giving effort as well as his commitment to the Foundation.

The Planned Giving Committee consists of the following members: Bob Kay, Matt Danielson, Denise Fazio, Steve Miles, and May O’Leary.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Matt Danielson, a member of the Planned Giving Committee and a Vestry member. Matt can be reached at matt@motorcyclelawgroup.com or (757) 871-9773.

Advent is coming and so is our annual Advent Wreath Workshop. If you would like to decorate an advent wreath for your home, please come to our workshop on Sunday, November 27 at 10 am in Richardson Hall. Wreath rings, wire, greenery, and candles will be provided.

If you have some greenery that you would like to share, please do! All contributions will be welcomed. Remember to bring a pair of gloves and some shears. Also, please send an e-mail to cawagner@henrico.k12.va.us or call 804-932-9004 and leave a message if you are planning on attending so that we can have enough materials for all participants.

From the Treasurer

As we near the year's end, I often get queries from people asking where they stand on their current year's pledge. I can easily generate a report in our contribution system that shows all of your contributions for the year and how much you have contributed toward your pledge. It's easiest for me to e-mail the report to you, but I can also print and mail contribution reports to folks that need paper! If you need an update on your 2016 pledge, please send an e-mail to stpeters.treasurer1@gmail.com or leave a voice message at 804-932-3925.
